1. SUMMARY

The Bank's Financial performance for the third quarter of 2022 is encouraging with all core business lines performing well compared to last quarter. Operating Profit amounted to MVR 694m, up 17% compared to last quarter. Profit After Tax amounted to MVR 367m, up 3.6% on the previous quarter. The quarter saw solid business volumes across all key sectors and loan book quality was maintained. Capital and liquidity ratios remain solid and well above regulatory requirements. The Bank expects to close the year with a strong last quarter.

During the quarter we continued our 12 high impact monthly community initiatives with announcement of our support to the Maldives National Museum, commitment to establish a dedicated Oncology Ward at Indira Gandhi Memorial Hospital and announcement of the Sports Scholarship Program.

2. BUSINESS DEVELOPMENTS

- In July, Ms. Aishath Noordeen was appointed as the In-charge and Acting MD of the Bank from 14th July 2022. The appointment was confirmed by the Board of Directors as Mr. Timothy Sawyer departed following completion of his 3-year tenure as CEO & Managing Director. Subsequently Mr. Karl Stumke was appointed as CEO in October 2022.
- In August, we announced commencement of acceptance of our American Express Debit Cards worldwide. Initially launched for domestic use, the American Express Debit Cards can now be linked to USD accounts for foreign purchases online and overseas, up to a daily default limit of USD3,000.
- Also in August, as part of our strategy to expand banking services to support local communities, we opened new Self Service Banking ATM Centres in Filladhoo and Vashafaru of Haa Alif Atoll. The centres will provide cash withdrawal, deposit and transfer services to individuals and businesses on a 24-hour basis.
- In September, we celebrated the success of our Graduate Internship Program and announced the continuation of the program for the fourth year with 15 new graduates and students from local higher education institutions. The 12-month internship program allows students to gain on-the-job experience and provide a pathway to permanent employment within the bank and other financial institutions in Maldives.
- During the quarter, we continued our 12 high impact monthly community initiatives to celebrate the Bank's 40th anniversary. In July, we announced our support to the Maldives National Museum through which the Bank will support the care, preservation, and display of the National Museum's collection. In August, we entered into an MoU with Indira Gandhi Memorial Hospital (IGMH) to establish a dedicated Oncology Ward at the hospital. As the initiative for the month of September, we announced our Sports Scholarship program which aims to support athletes achieve their sporting potential through targeted programs and will provide three fully funded scholarships for top national athletes to train and develop at recognized high performance training centres worldwide.
- During August, the Bank announced winners of the Community Fund and the following month, opened applications for the final phase of the Fund. The Bank supported the development of a deaf language dictionary in September and to mark World Humanitarian Day in August, we collaborated with Advocating the Rights of Children (ARC) to donate food packages to children in 100 vulnerable families.
